NEW FRIENDS

Part 1

Read the postcard.

Hello from Brazil!

April 5, 2013

Dear Sansfica,

I'm having a great time in São Paulo. It's really nice today—sunny and warm. But yesterday it was cloudy and a little cold.

I started staying with my host family last night. In total, I'll stay with them for three nights. They have a daughter, Manu, who is the same age as me. I was worried, but they all speak great English. We talked about music and movies, and we even like the same ones!

How are things at school? If you have time, we can video chat next weekend. I want to hear how everyone is.

The month will be over before I know it!

Leah

Sansfica Salazar

1785 Old Maple Lane

Hollywood, CA 72013

AIR MAIL

Write the correct word(s) to complete the sentences.

- _____ is in Brazil right now.
- She's staying with her host family for _____ more nights.
- Leah and _____ are the same age.
- On April 4, the weather was _____.
- Leah is going to be gone for _____.

 PAIR WORK Discuss the questions.

- When do most people write postcards, and to whom do they send them?
- Do we need to make small talk when we write postcards? Give reasons for your answer.
- What kinds of personal information should you not write on a postcard?

Part 2

Imagine you are Sansfica. Write a postcard to Leah. Talk about the weather and a new friend at school.

Part 3

Read your postcard to a partner without telling them where you are visiting. Have them guess where you are writing about.

Lessons 1-4: Grammar C

NEW FRIENDS

Polite requests

You can use I'd like + an infinitive to make a polite request:

I want a job application. → I'd like to have a job application.

You can also use May I / Could I / Can I + a verb to make a polite request:

May I have a job application?

I want a job application. → Could I have a job application?

Can I have a job application?

Add please to make requests more polite:

With May I, Could I, and Can I, you can add please before the verb, or at the beginning or the end of the sentence. (Notice the comma.)

May I please have a job application?

Please may I have a job application?

May I have a job application, please?

With I'd like, you can only add please at the end. (Notice the comma.)

I'd like a job application, please.

Part 1

Lesson 6: Reading & Writing

INTERESTS

Part 1

Read the magazine article.

Most popular travel movie 2003-2013

Every ten years I have to decide on the top travel movie of the past decade. It's not easy to choose just one, so here are my top two.

Number 1: Peru Journey

This movie came out nine years ago, but every time I see it, it makes me want to go to Peru. The information is interesting, and the scenes of Peru are amazing. I particularly like the scenes of Machu Picchu. One of the bad things about the movie is that it is three hours long. Have some snacks before you start it!

Number 2: Across Africa

This movie came out last year, but it isn't your usual travel movie. It's the story about how one family traveled across Africa. It took them four years, and during that time, there were many problems. The music is amazing, but the acting could be better.

Complete the sentences.

1. In the first paragraph, the word decade means _____.
2. The movie about Peru came out in _____.
3. The good thing about the second movie is _____.
4. The good points about the first movie are _____ and _____.
5. The bad point about the second movie is _____.

PAIR WORK Discuss the questions.

1. Do you want to see the movies? Give reasons for your answer.
2. Is there any other information you want to know about each movie?
3. What was the best movie you saw last year? Give reasons for your answer.

Part 2

Write a review of a movie. Include what you liked and didn't like about the movie.

Part 1

Read the advertisement below.

Would you try jet skiing? Then take this safety course first.

There are safety courses throughout the country, for people of all ages and skills. This course is important because 10% of all boaters use jet skis. Each course includes topics like:

- Watching the weather
- The water and children
- In and out of the water safety
- Checking your jet ski before you use it

Most courses are six to ten lessons of two to three hours each.

Look for courses with a state approval because they met the standards of the National Association of State Boating Law Administrators.

Contact your state recreation department for more information.

California Safe Boating Department

Answer the questions.

From: David Lopez
Subject: Portuguese tutor
Date: Friday, August 25, 2013
To: Jose Silva, Exchange Student Director

Dear Mr. Silva,

My name is David Lopez. I heard that you are looking for conversation partners to help American students who are coming here to learn Portuguese. I want to be a partner. I speak good English, and I know it is important to speak slowly when you help someone learn another language. At first, when the students don't know very much Portuguese, I can use English to help them, too.

I am friendly and patient, and I don't mind repeating myself. My friends say I am funny, so I think I can help the students relax when they first get here. I can also help them meet other people quickly.

I am looking forward to meeting the new students at the first meeting next Thursday.

Sincerely,
David

Mobile Phones before Bed

What do you usually do in the hour before you go to bed? If you are like most Americans 19-29 years old, you talk on your mobile phone, use your computer, or watch TV. But doing those things might be keeping you up at night.

These people said, on average, that they go to sleep at about midnight on weekdays and get up seven hours later. Interestingly, younger people, 13-18 years old, do the same things before bed, but they get up 40 minutes earlier on weekdays. However, because they also go to bed one hour earlier, they actually get more sleep than the older people.

Complete the sentences.

1. People who are 19-29 years old usually get up around _____.
2. This article is about people who live in _____.
3. The younger and older people _____ before bed.
4. People who are 13-18 years old go to bed at _____ and get up at _____ on weekdays.
5. People who are 13-18 years old sleep _____ than people who are 19-29 years old.

Read the business e-mail below.

From: Employment Department, Big Bend Electronics
Subject: What is your routine at work?
Date: Monday, November 25, 2013
To: All employees

Dear Colleagues,

We would like to help you better use your time at work. To understand what you do and how you spend your work time, please answer these questions in a reply e-mail.

What time do you usually get to and leave work?
What is the first thing you do when you get to work?
What is the last thing you do before you leave work?
How often do you check your e-mail?
Would you pay $10 a month to have coffee and donuts in the office every morning?
Is there anything we can do to make your first hour at work better?

Thank you for your help.

Sincerely,
Rika Kobayashi
Employment Department

Present continuous

Use the simple present for habits, facts that are always true, or facts that are true for a long time.

We usually eat lunch together in the cafeteria. (habit)

Jill has two brothers. (a fact that is always true)

We live in Miami. (a fact that is true for a long time)

Use the present continuous (be + verb + -ing) for activities that are happening now, are true temporarily, or are going to happen in the near future.

Happening now:

Someone is knocking on the door! Go see who it is!
I'm eating lunch now. Can I call you back later?

True temporarily:

Alphonse is working at a restaurant these days.
Theresa is living with her parents for the summer.

Going to happen in the near future:

You're studying in France next semester, right?
I'm getting up early tomorrow.

Use the simple present for non-action verbs that are not usually used in the present continuous: believe, need, dislike, see, hate, smell, hear, taste, know, think (meaning "to believe"), like, understand, love, want

I love my history class.

Ben hates getting up early.

I think history is interesting.

Dinner smells great!

Circle the correct verb to complete the sentence.

MY HOMETOWN

Part 1

Read the advertisement for an apartment.

Vista Bay at the Commons

Vista Bay at the Commons is the newest group of apartments in the southwest part of the city. It's just minutes from the train station and also near shopping and the best schools. Even though it's convenient, it's also quiet. No more sleepless nights because of noisy cars! You won't hear anything in our wonderful bedrooms.

You'll enter your new home through the living room, and once inside, you'll forget about everything else! You can relax as you cook in the huge, sunny kitchen or talk with friends in the cute dining room. Everyone will love the views out the windows of the living room, and you'll love the convenience of a laundry room, which is right next to the bathroom. No more taking your dirty clothes down the street to get them cleaned.

Call today to see these new apartments before they are gone. 800-741-9635.

Circle the correct word to complete each sentence.

1. The dining room/kitchen is big.
2. You probably don't see a wall/park through the living room windows.
3. The apartment has five/six rooms.
4. The writer wants us to think Vista Bay is louder/quieter than many other apartments.
5. In the last line of this ad, "they are gone" means the apartments will be rented/moved.

PAIR WORK Discuss the questions.

1. What important information is missing from the advertisement?
2. In your country, how many people would probably live in this apartment? Why?
3. Do you think you would like to live in this apartment? Why?

Part 2

Write an advertisement about the perfect apartment. Describe it and include the good things about it.

Part 3

MY HOMETOWN

Part 1

Read the page from a brochure.

Students' Suggestions

We know you have a lot of things to buy for your new life here at the school. On this page, we've included students' ideas about the best places to buy them.

Coffee tables, Dressers

Why don't you buy them used? They are much cheaper than new ones, and they usually still look good. New Homes is the best place to buy them, and they will bring the furniture to your apartment for free.

TVs

This is one thing you should buy new. You'll use it a lot, and you don't know how long used ones will last. The Best TVs on Orchard Road has the most choices, and their prices are pretty good.

Beds, Sofas

Almost every student we talked to said Sleep World is the only place to get beds and sofas, but a few students said World of Sleep isn't bad.

Good luck shopping!

Answer the questions.

1. Who is this article for? _____
2. What should they buy new? _____
3. Is there only one place that sells beds and sofas? _____
4. Where is the TV store that students suggested? _____
5. Why do students suggest New Homes? _____

PAIR WORK Discuss the questions.

1. In your country, what things are usually in apartments that you rent?
2. In your country, where do students usually live during university?
3. Look at the suggestions in the article. What things do you have to have in an apartment? What things could you live without?

Part 2

Imagine a new student is moving to your area. List one or more good places for them to buy used or new furniture for an apartment.

Part 3

In class, agree on the best places to buy used and new furniture in the area. Do you prefer new or used furniture? Why?

| _____ a movie ticket | _____ museum admission fee |

Part 2

Use your ideas from Part 1 to complete the conversations. You can use some things more than once. In class, practice the conversations with a partner.

1.

A: Museum admission fees are _____ than movie tickets.

B: I know. _____ are too expensive for me.

2.

A: I think _____ is reasonable.

B: Me, too. But it also depends on the place. At _____, _____ costs _____, but at _____ it costs _____.

3.

A: _____ can cost _____!

B: Yeah, but the cost depends on where you go.

4.

A: I think _____ costs the least, and _____ costs the most.

B: I think it depends. _____ is usually more expensive than _____, but sometimes _____ is even more expensive!

Part 3

How often do you pay for the things in Part 1? Write them in order from the most often to the least often (never). In class, talk about your ideas with a partner.

Lesson 21: Reading & Writing

SHOPPING

Part 1

Read the e-mail below from Marina.

From: Marina Gerges
Subject: Zurich is expensive!
Date: April 18, 2013
To: Fowzia Martin

Hi Fowzia,

I am visiting a friend in Zurich, Switzerland. We are doing some fun things, but I'm spending too much money. Everything is so expensive! My friend Anna lives just outside the city. It costs nine dollars to take the bus downtown, and it is only a 15-minute ride. The coffee is very good, but it cost $8 for one cup. You know I like at least two cups every morning. Movies cost about $20. A museum ticket isn't too bad – it is only $10. No wonder Zurich is one of the most expensive cities in the world!

Marina

Write the correct price next to each item.

- | | |
|---------------------------|------|
| 1. bus fare _____ | $8 |
| 2. a cup of coffee _____ | $9 |
| 3. a movie ticket _____ | $10 |
| 4. museum admission _____ | $20 |

PAIR WORK Discuss the questions.

1. Do you think Marina is having a good or a bad visit? Why?
2. What prices are important to visitors and tourists? Which are more important for people who live in a city?

Part 2

Write an e-mail to a friend about a city you know. What are the prices like? What do different things cost?

Part 3

Share your e-mail with a partner. Did you write about the same city? What prices were the same/different?

Lesson 22: Vocabulary

SHOPPING

Part 1

For each thing, write three examples.

1. clothes _____ pants, shorts, a sweater
2. makeup _____
3. toys _____
4. sports equipment _____
5. electronics _____
6. furniture _____
7. CDs _____
8. video games _____

In class, compare answers with a partner.

A: Pants, shorts, and a sweater are examples of clothes.

B: Yeah. And so are jeans, a jacket, and a T-shirt.

Part 2

What do you think about each of the things in Part 1? Put them in the diagram. In class, with your partner talk about why you put each one where you did.

Lesson 22: Reading & Writing

SHOPPING

Part 1

Read the article below about bargaining in Mexico.

Bargaining tips

You can find great bargains in Mexico if you know what you are doing. Most people bargain in markets. Follow the tips below and save money.

- Go early in the morning. You can get a better price.
- Bring your money in small bills and change.
- Be friendly. Say nice things about the items. Smile and ask questions.
- Know the prices ahead of time. You shouldn't start off with too low a price.
- Pick the item up and look at it. Show you are interested, but not too interested. The owner will say a price. You can offer a lower price.
- Don't get mad. If you don't like the price, walk away. You can look around and come back later.

Complete the sentences.

1. Most people bargain in _____ in Mexico.
2. You can get a lower price sometimes if you go _____.
3. It is good to know the _____ of things before you go.
4. You can _____ something up to show you are interested.
5. You can _____ if you don't like the price.

PAIR WORK Discuss the questions.

1. Why should you be friendly?
2. What are some ways to show you are interested?
3. What do you think the seller will do if you walk away?

Part 2

Write tips for bargaining in your country or a country you know well. When do people go? How do they bargain? How do they show they are interested? What can people bargain for?

Part 3

Share your tips with a partner. Do you have any different tips?

Lesson 23: Vocabulary

SHOPPING

Part 1

How do you buy these things? Put them in the diagram. In class, with your partner talk about why you put each one where you did.

Part 2

Answer the questions, giving reasons when you can. In class, take turns asking and answering the questions with a partner.

1. How often do you shop for clothes?

2. When do you get flowers?

3. What kind of magazines do you read?

4. When do you buy used comic books?

5. How often do you buy gum?

6. Do you ever use a phone card?

7. How often do you read newspapers on the Internet?

8. Do you often buy candy?

Lesson 23: Reading & Writing

SHOPPING

Part 1

Read the article below.

Media Habits in Americans between 8 and 18

American children and teenagers spend almost 11 hours every day on media. They usually do more than one thing at a time. For example, they listen to music and work on their computers. They read a book for school while they are watching TV. American kids watch TV about 4.5 hours every day. For most families, the TV is usually on during meals.

Something is always on. Children and teenagers listen to music 2.5 hours every day. They use computers about 1.5 hours each day. They only read books, newspapers, and magazines about 4 hours each week. In fact, most young people almost never read newspapers or magazines. If they need news, they read it online. Young people don't read often just because they don't like it. In fact, 20% said they never read for fun.

Mark the statements T (True) or F (False).

- _____ 1. Young people in the United States watch TV often.
- _____ 2. Families often watch TV during dinner.
- _____ 3. Children and teenagers usually do one thing at a time.
- _____ 4. They listen to music about 1.5 hours a day.
- _____ 5. They also read newspapers and magazines often.
- _____ 6. Young people read more than they watch TV.

PAIR WORK Discuss the questions.

1. How often do you watch TV?
2. How often do you read? What is your favorite thing to read (books, websites, magazines)?
3. Are young people in your country different from Americans? How?

Part 2

Write sentences about your own media use. Use expressions of frequency. Say something about each:

- TV use
- computer use
- listening to music
- the different things you read

Part 3

Share your sentences with a classmate. What is similar? What is different?

Lesson 24: Vocabulary

SHOPPING

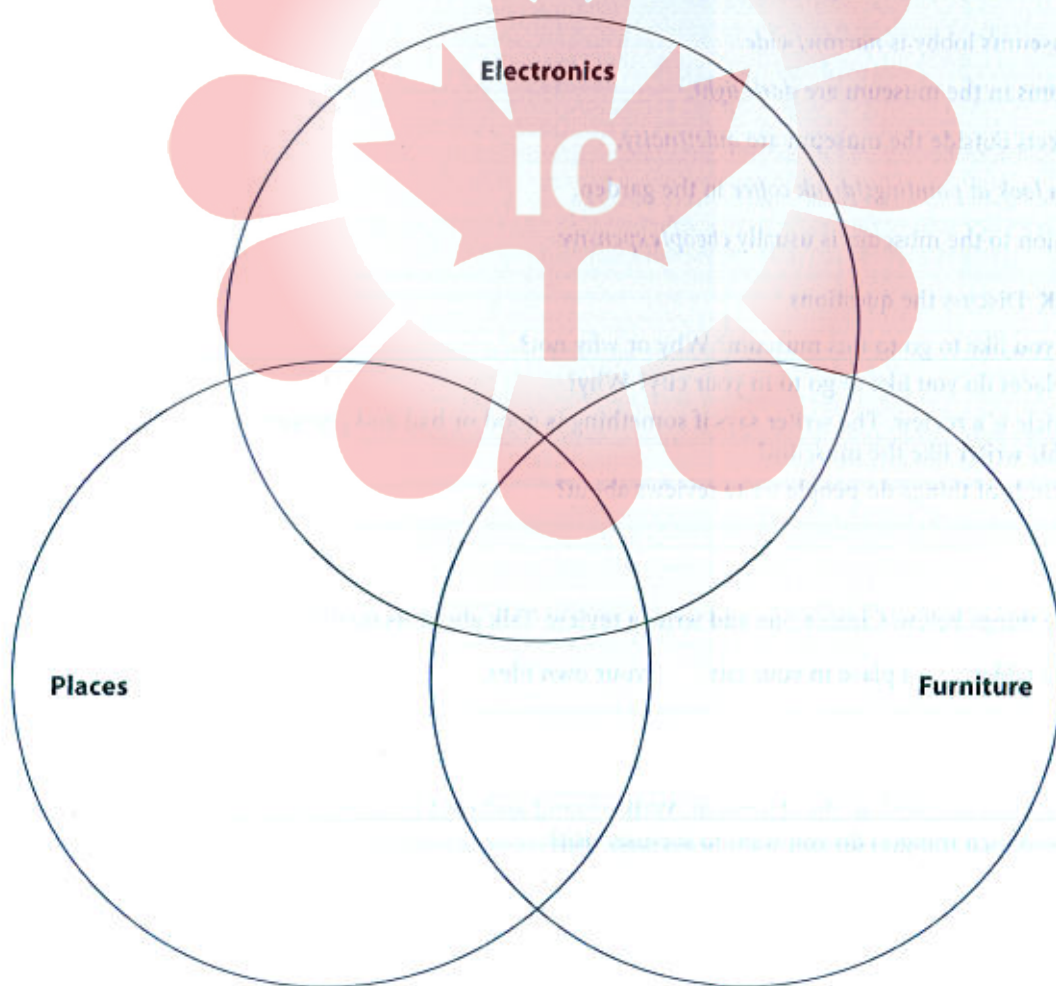

Part 1

Which word is different? Circle it. In class, with a partner talk about why it is different.

Lesson 24: Reading & Writing

SHOPPING

Part 1

Read the review from a student newspaper.

Your City Beat
New Art Museum a Must-See

The Adams Modern Art Museum opens this weekend. Don't miss it. The building has a cool design with an open lobby. There are many windows so all the rooms are light. Most of the paintings are bright and colorful. The garden outside blocks the noisy city streets. It is very quiet in the museum. You can walk around and look at the paintings. Or, you can drink a cup of coffee in the garden café. This weekend, they will have music from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. on Friday night and again from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. on Saturday afternoon. Admission is not expensive – only $5 – but this weekend it is free!

Circle the correct word to complete the sentence.

1. The museum's lobby is narrow/wide.
2. The rooms in the museum are dark/light.
3. The streets outside the museum are quiet/noisy.
4. You can look at paintings/drink coffee in the garden.
5. Admission to the museum is usually cheap/expensive.

 PAIR WORK Discuss the questions.

1. Would you like to go to this museum? Why or why not?
2. What places do you like to go to in your city? Why?
3. The article is a review. The writer says if something is good or bad and gives reasons. Does this writer like the museum?
4. What kinds of things do people write reviews about?

Part 2

Look at the things below. Choose one and write a review. Talk about its qualities.

a car a tablet a place in your city your own idea

Part 3

Post your review on a wall in the classroom. Walk around and read the reviews by your classmates. Which thing(s) do you want to see/use/visit?

Jill: Wait. Why are you _____ (14) it in the first place, if it's lucky?
Eric: My friend has a chair and he's always gotten A pluses. I'm _____ (15) his lucky chair.

Mike ever buys books. → Mike never buys books.

Verbs (seldom, rarely, hardly ever, never) are not used with a negative auxiliary.

Don't never buy books. → Some people never buy books.

Frequency adverbs usually come directly after the subject in questions.

Do you grow flowers here? Does she sometimes read newspapers?

Ever is used in questions about frequency. Ever means "at any time."

Do you ever buy books? Yes, he sometimes buys books.

Never is used in affirmative statements.

Mike never buys books.

Exercise 1

Write I if the sentence is incorrect. Rewrite the incorrect sentence.

I don't buy newspapers. I never buy newspapers.

I don't rarely buy comic books. _____

She doesn't ever shop at the mall. _____

I don't never visit the museum. _____

1. I I ever buy newspapers. I never buy newspapers .
2. We don't rarely buy comic books. .
3. Jason doesn't ever shop at the mall. .

4. Does Gina _____ read _____ things online? (ever)
5. It _____ is _____ quiet at the library. (usually)
6. We _____ buy _____ used things. (hardly ever)

Modal auxiliaries

Modal auxiliaries go with another verb and add to the meaning of the verb.

- She goes to the store.
- She can't go to the store now.
- She will go to the store later.

Can: ability/requests

- Can you ski? (ability)
Yes, I can.
No, I can't (cannot).
- Where can I get a cheap computer?
- You can go to the mall.
- Can you drive me to the mall? (request)

Will: future events/requests/expressions of willingness or refusal

- We will go to England someday./We'll go to England someday. (future)
- We won't (will not) go to New York next year.
- Will you take $50 for the sofa? (requests)
- I'll give it to you for $75. (expression of willingness)
- I won't give it to you for $50. (refusal)

Part 1

Complete the sentences. Circle can or will.

1. I like your new mobile phone. Can/Will I hold it for a minute?
2. I'm interested in this sofa. Can/Will you take $65 for it?
3. Yes, I'd like to go to the concert, but tickets can/will cost $100.
4. Is there a place where we can/will buy flowers around here?
5. I can't/won't drive to the mall because I don't have a car.
6. Mary is a vegetarian, so she can't/won't eat any meat at the party.

Part 2

1. _____ 2. _____ 3. _____ 4. _____ 5. _____ 6. _____

Lesson 25: Reading & Writing

FOOD

Part 1

Read the leaflet below.

Do you eat enough vegetables?

Now there is a new, easy way to make sure you are eating enough of all the right foods. It's called MyPlate because it looks like a plate and cup. The plate has four colors: red for fruits, green for vegetables, orange for grains, and purple for proteins. The cup is blue, for dairy. The size of the color piece helps people quickly understand how much of each kind of food they should eat. For example, together the red and green pieces fill half of the plate, but the vegetable piece is bigger. Also, the orange piece is bigger than the purple piece, but together they fill the other half of the plate. Dairy is a cup, not a plate, because milk is one of the main sources of dairy.

Complete the sentences.

1. MyPlate is a chart to help people eat _____.
2. According to the new chart, we should eat more _____ than fruits.
3. Dairy is a cup because _____.
4. According to the new chart, we should eat more _____ than protein.
5. Half of our food should be _____ and _____.

PAIR WORK Discuss the questions.

Compare what you eat with MyPlate. Are there foods you need to eat more often? Do you think the new chart is easy to understand?

Part 2

Imagine your class is going to teach other people about MyPlate. Make a chart that talks about what kinds of food are in each group.

Part 3

Share your chart with a partner. Did you write about the same foods for each category?

Dear Ms. Cambridge,

Thank you for eating at Pizza Pizza two days ago. The evening manager said you thought the food wasn't very good. I am very sorry to hear this. Could you please take a few minutes to answer the questions below and tell us what the problems were?

How did the hot bread taste?

What adjectives would you use to describe the pizza you ate?

What ingredients would you like on a pizza?

Would you eat spaghetti the next time you visit us?

Was any of your food bland?

Please fax your answer to me at the above fax number. We would like to give you a free dinner the next time you visit us.

Thank you for your time,

Claire Yoo

Circle the correct word to complete the sentence.

PAST & FUTURE

Part 1

Read the e-mail below.

From: Yiwei Ye
Subject: Thank you
Date: July 9, 2013
To: Julia Family

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Julia,

Thank you for taking me with you on Saturday. I had a great time celebrating your daughter Dolores' birthday, and I'm glad she liked my present. I knew she would look great in that shirt.

The baseball game was fantastic. It was my first time seeing a professional game, and there was excitement in the air! It was so cool of you to get us special tickets so we could meet some of the players. It's too bad our team lost, but they will win next time!

I will never forget Saturday. Thank you again,

Yiwei

Complete the sentences.

Lesson 31: Reading & Writing

PAST & FUTURE

Part 1

Read the magazine article.

Twice in the same day

Winning the lottery is amazingly lucky. But winning the lottery two times in the same day? Very few people can tell you what that feels like, but A.V. in the United States can.

She was in the hospital taking care of her mother when she saw the winning numbers on a TV news show. She looked at her mom and said, "You won't believe this! I won! Twice!" All she could say was, "Incredible!"

"When A.V. called me, she said, 'Listen to this. I won the lottery—twice!' But I thought she was joking," her friend, S.J., said.

She had chosen numbers related to her parents' ages and the year they were married. When asked what she was going to do with the money, she said she was looking forward to taking care of her parents.

Answer the questions.

1. Who is the she that says "Incredible"? _____
2. Why is A.V. unusual? _____
3. How is A.V. going to use the money? _____
4. Where was A.V. when she heard she won? _____
5. Who thought A.V. didn't really win the lottery? _____

 PAIR WORK Discuss the questions.

1. What would you do if you won a lot of money?
2. Would you rather win money or a trip? Why?
3. What are some other experiences that make people say, "You won't believe this"?

Part 2

Imagine that something exciting happened to you. Write a short magazine article talking about your experience.

Part 3

In groups of four, take turns reading your magazine articles. For which stories would you say, "I thought she/he was joking," because it's so incredible?

Lesson 32: Vocabulary

Simple past tense

The simple past tense expresses a past action that is finished. There is only one form of the past tense for all persons.

Last night we went to the movies. Marie came with us. I stayed up pretty late.

Spelling Rules

For regular verbs, the simple past tense is formed by adding -d or -ed.

like → liked name → named pass → passed want → wanted

If a verb has only one syllable and ends in one vowel + one consonant, double the consonant and add -ed.

plan → planned stop → stopped

If a verb ends in a consonant + -y, drop the y and add -ied.

study → studied carry → carried

Some Irregular Past Tense Verbs

buy bought	get got	see saw	take took come came	go went	pay paid	think thought
drink drank	have had	say said	wear wore
eat ate	make made	sit sat	write wrote

Complete the sentences with the simple past forms of the verbs in parentheses.

- Last weekend, I stayed home. (stay)
- Rob and Mary _____ at the library last night. (study)
